

Advisor for Education and Politics

Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz | Linz, 21.03.2025

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz is looking for an Advisor for Education and Politics.

The role as Advisor for Education and Politics includes the following areas:

- Coordination of the department team as well as internal and external communication of the department
- Participation in the Senate and the Curriculum Commission of the University of Arts Linz
- Engagement with current educational policy developments (reviewing legal texts, drafting statements, etc.)
- Point of contact for students regarding study-related legal matters, timetable questions, and similar issues
- Networking with other universities
- Organization of workshops and events on educational policy topics
- Participation in university representation meetings and team meetings
- Preparation of an activity report each semester
- Attendance at relevant training sessions and networking meetings

The meetings of the Senate and the Curriculum Commission of the University of Arts Linz are conducted in German. Therefore, confident communication in German, both spoken and written, is required.

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz offers you the opportunity to work in a dynamic team within an extraordinary and exciting environment. You will have the chance to develop your professional skills and actively shape future processes.

Furthermore, the position as Advisor for Education and Politics provides the possibility of extending family or student allowances, earning ECTS credits for elective courses, and receiving a functional allowance of 150 € (9x per year) as compensation for your voluntary work.

We look forward to receiving your application documents, including your CV and a list of your previous activities, via email at oeh.bewerbung@kunstuni-linz.at !