

Advisor for Sustainability

Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz | Linz, 21.03.2025

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz is looking for an Advisor for Sustainability.

The role as Advisor for Sustainability includes the following areas:

- Coordination of the department team as well as internal and external communication of the department
- Development of agendas on environmentally sustainable policies for the university representation
- Participation in the Sustainability Board of the University of Arts Linz
- Engagement with current political developments in the field of sustainability
- Representation of students' interests in the area of sustainability (sustainability in academic operations, sustainability in teaching, ecological sustainability, social sustainability, etc.)
- Networking with related departments at other universities
- Supervision of ongoing projects (material exchange, purchasing collective, etc.)
- Organization of workshops and events
- Collaboration with the Press and Public Relations department to promote projects and events, as well as providing content for newsletters
- Preparing an activity report each semester
- Participation in relevant training sessions and networking meetings
- Attendance at university representation meetings and team meetings

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz offers you the opportunity to work in a dynamic team within an extraordinary and exciting environment. You will have the chance to develop your professional skills and actively shape future processes.

Furthermore, the position as Advisor for Sustainability provides the possibility of extending family or student allowances, earning ECTS credits for elective courses, and receiving a functional allowance of 150 € (9x per year) as compensation for your voluntary work.

We look forward to receiving your application documents, including your CV and a list of your previous activities, via email at oe.h.bewerbung@kunstuni-linz.at !