

Consultant for Intersectional Empowerment

Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz | Linz, 15.10.2025

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz is looking for
A Consultant for the department of Intersectional Empowerment.

The role as Consultant for Intersectional Empowerment includes the following areas:

- Identifying and advocating for the abolition of classist and ableist discrimination at the University of Arts Linz, as well as on regional, national, and international levels
- Representing the interests of all students in committees, commissions, and working groups at the University of Arts Linz (especially the Working Group on Equal Opportunities – AKG)
- Networking with Intersectional Empowerment departments at other universities and organizations
- Political work and public relations
- Supporting the Intersectional Empowerment advisor in the implementation of projects and events
- Collaborating with the Press and Public Relations department in promoting projects and events
- Monitoring internal and external allocation of funding in the context of structural disadvantage within the assigned responsibilities
- Internal sensitization within the student union (ÖH) and creating 'safer spaces'
- Participating in relevant training sessions and networking meetings
- Attending university representation meetings and team meetings

The meetings of the AKG (Working Group on Equal Opportunities) at the University of Arts Linz are held in German. Therefore, German language skills are advantageous.

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz offers you the opportunity to work in a dynamic team within an extraordinary and exciting environment. You will have the chance to develop your professional skills and actively shape future processes.

Furthermore, the position as Consultant for Intersectional Empowerment provides the possibility of extending family or student allowances, earning ECTS credits for elective courses, and receiving a functional allowance of 100 € (9x per year) as compensation for your voluntary work.

We look forward to receiving your application documents, including your CV and a list of your previous activities, via email at oeh.bewerbung@kunstuni-linz.at!
