

Consultant for Art and Culture

Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz | Linz, 15.10.2025

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz is looking for
A Consultant for the department of Art and Culture.

Your role as Consultant for Art and Culture includes the following areas:

- Handling the ÖH project funding under the guidance of the advisor for Art and Culture (announcement, selection of the jury, communication of information, and formal processing of the funded projects).
- Organizing workshops, lectures, and events, e.g. "5 o'clock tea" (the "5 o'clock tea" is a lecture series in which young artists present their work and experiences in the art world in a relaxed atmosphere).
- Sharing information on topics such as calls for proposals, competitions, funding opportunities for artists and cultural workers, current exhibitions, etc., in cooperation with the department for Press and Public Relations.
- Acting as a contact person and providing support for applications (funding, scholarships, awards, etc.).
- Attending meetings of the university representation and team meetings.
- Preparing an activity report.

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz offers you the opportunity to work in a dynamic team within an extraordinary and exciting environment. You will have the chance to develop your professional skills and actively shape future processes.

Furthermore, the position as Consultant for Intersectional Empowerment provides the possibility of extending family or student allowances, earning ECTS credits for elective courses, and receiving a functional allowance of 100 € (9x per year) as compensation for your voluntary work.

We look forward to receiving your application documents, including your CV and a list of your previous activities, via email at oeh.bewerbung@kunstuni-linz.at !
