

Advisor for Events

Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz | Linz, 15.10.2025

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz is looking for an Advisor for the department for Events

The role as Advisor for Events includes the following areas:

- Coordination of the department team as well as internal and external communication of the department
- Planning and organization of Students' Union celebrations (semester opening, semester closing, Christmas part and the like)
- Assisting in the planning and organization of other Students' Union events (orientation day for first-year students, information sessions, retreats, workshops, excursions, etc.)
- Close collaboration with the Department for Press and Public Relations regarding event promotion and external communication
- Advising students (How do you organize an event at the university and beyond?)
- Participation in meetings of the university representation and team meetings
- Preparing a semester activity report

Do you enjoy planning, organizing, and running events as part of a team? Are you enthusiastic about parties, workshops, and excursions alike? We need you! With energy and creativity, you'll work together with the chair team to plan and organize the events of the Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz.

The Students' Union of the University of Arts Linz offers you the opportunity to work in a dynamic team within an extraordinary and exciting environment. You will have the chance to develop your professional skills and actively shape future processes.

Furthermore, the position as Advisor for Events provides the possibility of extending family or student allowances, earning ECTS credits for elective courses, and receiving a functional allowance of 150 € (9x per year) as compensation for your voluntary work.

We look forward to receiving your application documents, including your CV and a list of your previous activities, via email at oeh.bewerbung@kunstuni-linz.at !
